

PRESS RELEASE

Statement from the OAG, DPSCS and DEA

BALTIMORE, MD (December 8, 2017) – The Office of the Attorney General, the Maryland Department of Public Safety and Correctional Services (DPSCS), and the U.S. Drug Enforcement Administration today announced the following:

Farad Myles, arrested on 11/29/2017, has no connection to the criminal activity described in the indictment of Antoine Fordham and co-defendants announced on 11/30/2017. The state has dismissed the charges against him.